12 – 26 January 2013

OPENING DAY Saturday 12th January – at 6.00 pm

FINISSAGE Saturday 26th January - at 6.00 pm

Firm decisions are necessary, from now on, to keep believing and hoping for a country with a violent dignity, with a hurt culture: INviso - collective action wants to be a strong protest sign to remember all Tibetan martyrs, which spirit is embodied by the Dalai Lama, central figure in the Tibetan community. His face is Tibet's symbol. The idea is disarming in his simplicity: on Sunday 28th August 2011 artists, friends and supporters of the Tibetan cause are going to meet at the Tibet Pavilion to walk together, wearing a mask with Dalai Lama's face - the most INviso face for Chinese politicians - until the entrance of the Arsenale, where the China Pavilion is hosted. Tragic masks will cry without sound their outrage through a collective action; and the Mail Art project INviso (the first project of this network exhibited at the Venice Biennial) arranged for the Tibet Pavilion, wants to be a strong protest sign to remember all Tibetan martyrs, which spirit is embodied by the Dalai Lama, central figure in the Tibetan community. His face is Tibet's symbol. Artists from all the world have been invited to realize a performance by the Dalai Lama's mask sent before to them and to document this action by photos and statements, which have been shown at Tibet Pavilion.
